

LGL Provides Update on Non-Binding Acquisition Proposal;
LGL Reminds Shareholders Rights Offering Will Expire at 5:00pm ET on November 13, 2017

ORLANDO, FL, November 9, 2017 – The LGL Group, Inc. (NYSE MKT: LGL) (the “Company”) a globally diversified holding company with a history of operations dating back to 1914, today announced that it continues to engage with the investment group that submitted the previously announced non-binding proposal to acquire for cash the assets of its two principal operating subsidiaries, M-tron Industries, Inc. (“Mtron”) and Precise Time and Frequency, LLC (“PTF”) (together “MtronPTF”).

The investment group has proposed to acquire 100% of the MtronPTF assets on a cash-free, debt-free basis for a total enterprise value of $14 million. The investment group advised that its valuation assumes completion of confirmatory financial due diligence, sufficient working capital for current operations, the Company is debt and liability free and a transaction can be structured to achieve step up tax goals.

The previously appointed special committee of the board will continue to evaluate the non-binding proposal and explore other strategic alternatives as circumstances warrant. No decisions, nor commitments have been made with respect to the non-binding proposal and there can be no assurance that the special committee will authorize the commencement of negotiations with the investment group, and if negotiations commence, there can be no assurance as to whether a definitive agreement will be executed, the terms thereof or that any transaction governed thereby will be consummated, or if consummated, as to the timing thereof.

The special committee, in consultation with its legal and financial advisors, continues to carefully review and evaluate the non-binding proposal and as a matter of policy, the Company will not comment on or provide the market with updates as to the status of its discussions with investment group, nor will it comment upon any rumors with regard to the foregoing or make a further announcement regarding the special committee’s consideration of any proposal or other expressions of interest until such time, if ever, that it enters into a definitive agreement for a completed transaction or is otherwise required to make an announcement.

Rights Offering Expires on November 13, 2017

The Company reminds holders of its common stock that the deadline for participating in its previously announced rights offering is 5:00pm, Eastern Time, on November 13, 2017, unless extended.

As previously announced, the Company has distributed, at no charge, to each holder of common stock as of the record date of September 5, 2017, three transferable subscription rights for each share held on the record date. For every four subscription rights exercised, a shareholder can purchase one whole share of common stock at a subscription price of $5.50 per whole share of common stock. The subscription rights are transferable and have been admitted to the NYSE American under the symbol “LGL-RT”.

If the subscription rights are not fully exercised by other shareholders, the Company will permit shareholders on the record date who do exercise their subscription rights in full to exercise an over-subscription right to purchase, at the same price, the additional shares of common stock that remain unsubscribed at the expiration of the rights offering, subject to the availability and pro rata allocation of common stock among persons who exercise the over-subscription right.

The Company cautions shareholders and others considering trading in the Company's securities that while the non-binding proposal submitted by the investment group is actively under consideration by the special committee, no decisions have yet been made by the special committee or the full board with respect to the proposal. The investment group's proposal is subject to completion of due diligence which has not commenced. There can be no assurance as to whether a definitive agreement will be executed, the terms thereof or that any transaction governed thereby will be consummated, or if consummated, as to the timing thereof.

If a definitive agreement with respect to the proposed purchase of the Company's MtronPTF assets is executed and consummated, the Company will have disposed of its principal operating businesses, leaving its remaining assets comprised of cash and other liquid investments. The Company's board of directors may then decide to pursue other strategic alternatives which may take the form potential business acquisition or combination opportunities. The Company is unable to project in any manner the course of action to be pursued in such circumstances and whether such opportunities will be available and if available and successfully pursued, the Company thereafter will be subject to future risks and uncertainties associated with such opportunities which are unknown at this time.

The rights offering is being made pursuant to the Company's effective registration statement on Form S-1 (No. 333-218901) on file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") and only by means of a prospectus.
